MANDARINE GESTION HAS RECRUITED A NEW SENIOR EQUITY FUND MANAGER TO SUPPORT ITS GROWTH

Mandarine Gestion, a specialist in conviction-based equity fund management, has announced the recruitment of Thierry Le Clercq as senior European equity fund manager. With over 15 years of experience on the financial markets, during which he developed a fundamental qualitative approach, he will be responsible for the Mandarine Opportunités fund and co-manager of the Mandarine Active fund. This new addition to the fund management team reflects the new development dynamic at Mandarine Gestion, which has just celebrated its 10 years of existence.

“The recruitment of experienced fund managers such as Thierry Le Clercq, who we are very happy to welcome to our team, is designed to accelerate our growth in the area of expertise that has driven the success of Mandarine Gestion: conviction-based equity fund management”, said Marc Renaud, President / CEO of Mandarine Gestion. “We are convinced as concerns the pertinence of our approach, which is based on extensive knowledge of the markets and companies in which we invest, and which makes sense for our investors.”

Biography: Thierry Le Clercq, 42 years old, began his career in 1999 at Exane as a financial analyst covering French Small & Midcaps. In 2001, he joined Fideuram Wargny as an analyst specialising in the financial sector. He then joined Allianz Global Investors in 2005 to assure the coverage of European stocks before being promoted to the post of manager of the European stock portfolio in 2007. He occupied this post for 10 years prior to joining Mandarine Gestion as a senior equity fund manager. Thierry Le Clercq holds a post-graduate degree in finance from the University of Aix-Marseille and a Master in Finance from Paris-Dauphine University. He is also a lecturer at Sciences-Po Paris.
