MANDARINE GESTION HAS RECRUITED A NEW EQUITY FUND MANAGER

Mandarine Gestion, a specialist in conviction-based equity fund management, has recruited Adrien Dumas as an equity fund manager. With over ten years of experience in asset management, Adrien Dumas joined the company at the beginning of July. He will be responsible for the Mandarine Active fund and co-manager of the Mandarine Opportunités fund.

“The arrival of Adrien has reinforced our expertise in European large caps”, said Marc Renaud, President / CEO of Mandarine Gestion. “This recruitment reflects the continued development of Mandarine Gestion, which we are seeking to accelerate by reinforcing our fund management offer in the area of expertise at the heart of our success: conviction-based equity fund management.”

Biography:

Adrien Dumas, 35 years old, began his career at Société Générale Asset Management in London in 2006 as an emerging markets equity analyst. He then joined Financière de l’Echiquier in 2007, first as an analyst before being promoted to Equity Manager. In 2016, he was recruited by Axa Investment Managers as manager of proprietary trading in European stocks.

Adrien holds a Master of Science in Risk and Asset Management from EDHEC.
